Good Morning Kim,

Attached please find Shell's Technical Memorandum and supporting analyses of its proposed construction of Mud Line Cellars (MLC) utilizing the "digger" technology Shell described to the Region earlier. We have labeled this information as Confidential Business Information (CBI) because Shell's analyses is unique to its exploration strategy. We look forward to hearing from you regarding this information and please let me know if there are others at Region 10 who should receive these documents.

Thank you,

John
